

ESSAYS AND STUDIES
by Members of
TOKYO WOMAN'S CHRISTIAN COLLEGE
VOL. III, NO. 3. APRIL 1953

CONTENTS

- A Study of the "Song of Kusakayama" in Mannyôshû
by Tomoo Fujimori
- "Monomane" and "Yûgen" of Kyôgen
—On the Rise of Kyôgen—
by Hisashi Furukawa
- A Study of Susukida Kyûkin's Carrier and his Works
by Midori Matsumura
- On Yazaki-Saganoya
by Tomoichi Sasabuchi
- On the Novels of Charles Morgan
—A New Discovery of Individuality—by Yûko Kobayashi
- The Subjunctive Mood in Chaucer's Canterbury Tales
by Michi Takahashi
- On the Combination of Death and Love Expressed in the Poetical Works of Edgar Allan Poe
by Yûko Eguchi
- Jane Austen and Sensibility
by Chise Ibuki
-

Published by TOKYO JOSHI DAIGAKU
(TOKYO WOMAN'S CHRISTIAN COLLEGE)